The petition for sucession certificate is filed by three minor petitioners, represented by their father and next friend. Notice of the petition has been issued to the maternal uncle of the minors and published in the Residency Orders. The uncle, in his letter, has not claimed any share in the estate, but wants that the estate must be in tact till the minors attain majority and prays that the petition may be dismissed.

(5)

The Madras High Court, in 36 Madras, 214, held that a succession certificate can be granted to a minor on an application made by him through his natural guardian and the provision of section 375 can be satisfied by the guardian depositing the necessary security on behalf of the minor.

(6)

For orders whether the certificate applied for may be granted after the next-friend furnishes necessary security. [Please see section 375, Subsections (1) and (2). If the money is not paid to the minors when they attain majority, they may get the Bond assigned in their favour and may sue in their own name].
